

16&17 February 2022

MAKING CITIES EDIBLE

The Edible Cities Network Conference

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME - Day 1

Please note that all times are Central European Time (CET)

10.00-11.00 MAKING CITIES EDIBLE

Moderator: Ina Säumel, Humboldt University Berlin (DE)

Keynote Speakers:

- Mary Clear, Incredible Edible (UK):
"The Power of Small Actions"
- Jörg Niewöhner, Humboldt University Berlin (DE):
"Sociotrophic Territories: collaborating across communities of practice"

11.00-13.00 EDIBLE CITY SOLUTIONS: VOICES FROM THE GROUND

Moderator: Sebastian Eiter, Institute of Bioeconomy Research (NO)

Guest speaker:

- Martina Artmann, Leibniz Institute of Ecological Urban and Regional Development (DE):
"Resonating human-food relations in cities – getting in touch with the food we eat"

Presenters:

- Robert Shaw, Prinzessinnengarten (DE):
"Insights from Prinzessinnengarten"
- Pia Cathrin Kristiansen, Marit Ingeborg Kvernmoen, Thea Nørvåg Norwegian University of Life Sciences (NO): "Linderud neighborhood and community garden - What motivates the users and what future wishes do they have?"
- Anneli Karlsson, Andernach Municipality (DE):
"Small bugs – Big impact. Monitoring beetles"
- Anna Anglí, Sant Feliu de Llobregat Municipality(ES):
"Strategy for advancing agroecological schools in Sant Feliu de Llobregat"

Roundtable Discussion

Making an Impact: Catalysing change through urban food innovation

13.00-14.00 LUNCH BREAK

14.00-16.00 EDIBLE CITY POLICIES & STRATEGIES

Moderator: Maximilian Manderscheid, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences Vienna (AT)

Guest speaker:

- Doris Damyanovic, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences Vienna (AT):
"Integrating Edible City Solutions in Urban Planning Strategies in Vienna"

Presenters:

- Hilde Marie Herrebrøden, Oslo Municipality (NO):
"Sprouting Oslo – room for everyone in the city's green spaces. A Strategy for Urban Agriculture"
- Tina Hilbert & Sören Bott, Senate Department of Urban Development and Housing, Berlin (DE):
"Anchoring edible city solutions in the Berlin Neighbourhood management programme"
- Boubaker Houman, EdiCitNet City Team, Carthage (TN):
"Integrating Edible City Solutions in Carthage: Challenges and perspectives"
- Lamia Bouziri & Latifa Bousselmi, Association la Recherche en Action (TN):
"The new components of urban agriculture in the 'Grand Tunis'"

Roundtable Discussion

Engaging Decision Makers: Embedding urban food innovation into city planning

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME - Day 2

Please note that all times are Central European Time (CET)

10.00-11.00 EDIBLE CITY MEET & GREET

Informal Networking Session - Chat & connect to conference participants and experts!

We will be welcoming a range of different EdiCitNet project partners for this session: experts on urban food initiatives, on working with water and on building alliances with city administrations to integrate sustainable food innovation into urban planning.

Feel free to ask questions about the Edible Cities Network Project in general too - and give us tips and feedback.

11.00-12.00 EDICITNET AWARDS CEREMONY

Moderator: Nevelina Pachova, Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology (RMIT) Europe, Barcelona (ES)

Award categories

- Most Innovative Individual Action (Initiative)
- Most Innovative Individual Action (Local Hero)
- Most Innovative Social Engagement Process
- Best Overall Edible City Approach

Open Q&A with all EdiCitNet Award Winners

12.00-13.00 LUNCH BREAK

13.00-15.00 BUILDING ALLIANCES FOR EDIBLE CITY SOLUTIONS

Moderator: Vic Borrill, Brighton & Hove Food Partnership (UK)

Speakers:

- Nienke Bouwhuis, Groen 010 (NL):

"Grassroots take the lead"

- Kerstin Stelmacher, Kiezgarten Berlin (DE):

"Fertile cooperations - How urban gardening networks help promoting edible city solutions and vice versa"

- Leon Ballin, Sustainable Food Places (UK):

"Connecting, nurturing and sustaining food partnerships"

- Kai Gildhorn, Terra Concordia (DE):

"Wir Sind Essbar - The German Network of Edible Cities"

- Jan-Eelco Jansma, Wageningen University (NL):

"European Forum on Urban Agriculture (EFUA): developing cross national stakeholder engagement to unlock the potential of Urban Agriculture in EU policies"

- Ana Moragues, University of Barcelona (ES):

"The emergence of city food networks: Rescaling the impact of urban food policies"

Roundtable Discussion

Food Connects Us: Negotiating differences & bridging gaps

Conclusions & Outlook

Making Cities Edible: Moving forward and continuing to grow